Dear Parents, Boys and Girls,

Many parents have asked me about my recent time away from school. Some thought I was continuing the holiday break while others just inquired about my leave. I had the great privilege of attending Bishop Anthony’s Pilgrimage “In the Footsteps of St Paul”. Just before we were about to leave Bishop Anthony was appointed as Arch Bishop of Sydney and was unable to attend. We were lucky to have Fr Chris (Vica General for Education) accompany us on our Pilgrimage. The whole experience was an amazing spirit-filled opportunity to explore the importance of St Paul and his impact on the early Catholic church.

I intend to share a range of experiences from my travels with the children and hopefully the parents of our community here at St Margaret Mary’s. Please check upcoming issues for more reflections. The following is some basic information on St Paul taken from the internet:

Paul the Apostle (Greek: Παύλος Paulos; c. 5 – c. 67), original name Saul of Tarsus (Greek: Σαῦλος Ταρσεύς Saulos Tarseus), as an apostle (though not one of the Twelve Apostles) who taught the gospel of Christ to the first-century world.[7] He is generally considered one of the most important figures of the Apostolic Age. In the mid-30s to the mid-50s, he founded several churches in Asia Minor and Europe. Paul used his status as both a Jew and a Roman citizen to advantage in his ministry to both Jewish and Roman audiences.

St. Paul, the indefatigable Apostle of the Gentiles, was converted from Judaism on the road to Damascus. He remained some days in Damascus after his Baptism, and then went to Arabia, possibly for a year or two to prepare himself for his future missionary activity. Having returned to Damascus, he stayed there for a time, preaching in the synagogues that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God. For this he incurred the hatred of the Jews and had to flee from the city. He then went to Jerusalem to see Peter and pay his homage to the head of the Church.

Later he went back to his native Tarsus, where he began to evangelize his own province until called by Barnabus to Antioch. After one year, on the occasion of a famine, both Barnabus and Paul were sent with alms to the poor Christian community at Jerusalem. Having fulfilled their mission they returned to Antioch. Soon after this, Paul and Barnabus made the first missionary journey, visiting the island of Cyprus, then Pamphylia, Pisidia, and Lycaonia, all in Asia Minor, and establishing churches at Pisidian Antioch, Iconium, Lystra, and Derbe.

After the Apostolic Council of Jerusalem Paul, accompanied by Silas and later also by Timothy and Luke, made his second missionary journey, first revisiting the churches previously established by him in Asia Minor, and then passing through Galatia. At Troas a vision of a Macedonian was had by Paul, which impressed him as a call from God to evangelize in Macedonia. He accordingly sailed for Europe, and preached the Gospel in Philippi. Thessalonica, Berea, Athens, and Corinth. Then he returned to Antioch by way of Ephesus and Jerusalem.

On his third missionary journey, Paul visited nearly the same regions as on the second trip, but made Ephesus where he remained nearly three years, the center of his missionary activity. He laid plans also for another missionary journey, intending to leave Jerusalem for Rome and Spain. Persecutions by the Jews hindered him from accomplishing his purpose. After two years of imprisonment at Caesarea he finally reached Rome, where he was kept another two years in chains.

The Acts of the Apostles gives us no further information on the life of the Apostle. We gather, however, from the Pastoral Epistles and from tradition that at the end of the two years St. Paul was released from his Roman imprisonment, and then travelled to Spain, later to the East again, and then back to Rome, where he was imprisoned a second time and in the year 67, was beheaded.

St. Paul’s untiring interest in and paternal affection for the churches established by him have given us fourteen canonical Epistles. It is, however, quite certain that he wrote other letters which are no longer extant. In his Epistles, St. Paul shows himself to be a profound religious thinker and he has had an enduring formative influence in the development of Christianity. The centuries only make more apparent his greatness of mind and spirit. His feast day is June 29th.

God Bless.

Students Late to School
Parents are reminded that students who are consistently late for school with no apparent reason will have some of their play time at recess or lunch taken from them, to make up the time that has been missed from the morning lesson.

School Start Time
Students need to start making their way to class at 8:30am, music will play from 8:30am to 8:40am. All gates will be locked at 8.40am. This means that any student not here before 8:40am are late for class. At 8:40am on Monday mornings we assemble as a whole school.

Uniform
I have notice a trend in multi colours sports shoes being worn by students. Parents are reminded that when purchasing new sports shoes for their child they must be predominately white. Multi coloured are not an acceptable part of the school uniform.

Absentee Notes
Parents are reminded that they must send a note to their child’s class teacher explaining the absence on the child’s return to school. This note is a legal requirement for all students in all grades.

Year Six Shared Reflection

I WISH
I wish I could challenge myself to different heights because I can see what I have regretted. I wish that I could stop being so afraid of heights so I know.

By Suzanne Mekdessi

Year Two
Year Two have moved from their learning space to the LARC for approximately 3 weeks. There will be building work happening in the Year Two Learning space over the next 2-3 weeks. Thank you to all the staff who have been involved in the move for your hard work and the many after hours staying back to empty the learning space. It has been greatly appreciated.

Year Six
We apologise for all the chalk marks on the footpath around the office area and the main gate at the front of the school. We have a group of Year Six students designing a garden for the front of the school.

Uniform
I have notice a trend in multi colours sports shoes being worn by students.
